

Press Release

Construction Pool Joins IFB 2014 for PlaceEXPO Event

Construction Pool, the Northwest's premier business development network for construction and property professionals, is to host an evening drinks reception at the PlaceEXPO conference site, as part of the International Festival for Business 2014 (IFB). This represents an unprecedented opportunity to meet and connect with the combined networks of Construction Pool, Place North West, IFB and a multitude of sponsor organisations.

5pm

Wednesday 9th July 2014

PlaceEXPO Property Pavilion, 4 St Paul's Square (off Old Hall Street), Liverpool

Construction Pool has hosted events throughout the Northwest and Yorkshire since 2009. Joining the business development network as sponsor at IFB, is national property auctioneer Auction House, as well as Liverpool developer and commercial agent Ascot Property Services.

Venue PlaceEXPO, is the property and construction centre for IFB. The vibrant, multi-purpose space is furnished by local supplier Form Office and based at No 4 St Paul's Square, in Liverpool's commercial district. Hosted by property news website Place North West for the duration of the festival, PlaceEXPO will be home to many and varied sector specific events throughout the coming weeks.

Construction Pool is hosted in conjunction with event partner Hays Construction and Property.

Organiser Gill Torres said:

“Construction Pool has built a loyal following amongst construction and property professionals over the years and we are looking forward to introducing our network to festival delegates, not to mention the fantastic PlaceEXPO hub itself.

“Construction Pool at the IFB promises to be one of our biggest events yet and we are proud to see it take place in our home city of Liverpool.”

This event is open exclusively to construction and property industry professionals. Registration is free and available via www.constructionpool.org/events.

ENDS